NSS Unit of GDCW Kathua Commences 7-Day Special Winter Camp with Cultural Bonanza

The NSS Unit of Government Degree College for Women (GDCW), Kathua today inaugurated its 7-day Special Winter Camp 2026 with great enthusiasm and a vibrant cultural bonanza in the college campus. The camp will continue for seven days in the college premises as well as in the adopted village, focusing on community service, awareness activities, and personality development of volunteers.

The inaugural programme began with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by the worthy Principal, Prof. Jaipal Singh, along with other esteemed staff members of the college, symbolizing the spirit of service and enlightenment.

On the first day of the camp, NSS volunteers actively participated in a cleanliness drive and devoted their time to the beautification and maintenance of the NSS Park within the college campus. The activity reflected their commitment towards environmental awareness and social responsibility.

Following the cleanliness drive, a colourful cultural programme was organized. The NSS volunteers showcased their talent through lively performances, including traditional Dogri and Punjabi folk dances, which added vibrancy and enthusiasm to the inaugural day of the camp. The performances highlighted the rich cultural heritage of the region and fostered a spirit of unity and celebration among the participants.

The entire event was conducted under the patronage of Prof. Jaipal Singh, Principal of the college, and under the supervision of Dr. Ritu Kumar Sharma, NSS Programme Officer. Faculty members and students participated wholeheartedly and appreciated the efforts of the NSS unit in organizing such a meaningful and engaging camp.

NSS 7-Day Special Winter Camp 2026 Concludes with Cultural Bonanza at GDC for Women Kathua

NIWA NEWS
KATHUA, FEB 20

The NSS Unit of Government Degree College for Women brought its 7-Day Special Winter Camp 2026 to a vibrant close with a grand cultural programme that reflected the spirit of service, creativity, and unity fostered among volunteers throughout the week. The valedictory ceremony witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, and invited guests, making it a memorable celebration of talent and community engagement.

The final day featured a series of captivating performances by NSS volunteers, including seven energetic group dances and a soulful solo singing presentation. Students showcased India's cultural diversity through lively folk dances representing Dogri, Punjabi, Haryanvi, Rajasthani, and Gujarati traditions. Their colourful costumes, graceful movements, and enthusiastic expressions drew loud applause from the audience and highlighted the volunteers' dedication and teamwork developed during the camp.

The programme was anchored by Lakshmi, who also presented a detailed report summarising the activities conducted during the camp under the banner of the National Service Scheme. She highlighted cleanliness drives, awareness campaigns, community outreach programmes, and personality development sessions carried out by volunteers, which aimed at instilling social responsibility and leadership qualities among students.

The event was graced by Jaipal Singh, Principal of the college, as Chief Guest, while Manuj Kesar, Chairman of Press Club Kathua, attended as Guest of Honour. Both dignitaries praised the dedication, discipline, and enthusiasm displayed by the NSS volunteers and encouraged them to continue serving society with sincerity and commitment. They emphasised that such camps play a vital role in shaping responsible citizens and strengthening the spirit of national unity and social awareness among youth.

A prize distribution ceremony was also held during the event, where outstanding volunteers, speakers, and performers were honoured with certificates and awards for their contributions. The entire programme was organised under the able guidance of Ritu Kumar Sharma, NSS Programme Officer, whose leadership ensured the successful planning and execution of the week-long camp.

The Winter Camp concluded on a high note, leaving students inspired and motivated to continue community service. The initiative not only showcased the cultural talent of the participants but also reinforced the importance of empathy, teamwork, and social responsibility, making it a truly meaningful experience for everyone involved.
